So what is the deal, does no one want to win the money? Another week another challenger for strike ball, this time it was Bounce who once again tried getting the best of Mo, however the shot didn't quite work out so the pot grows again. Rough guess says this week will be around $150, which would be the largest pot of the season. For those of you who remember the last time it got this high Dave Jackson won it at $140.

As we come in into the final stretch of the season, the standings are being to look like a serious competition. 4 points seperate the top 4 teams in the league. So here is your reminder the second half position round is on 4/22. That means you all still have about a month to take your shot at getting into a position to force a second half roll off AND/OR a championship roll-off against Comanche. Good luck everyone!
