50/50 -$79 - Rich Bothell

XBall - $25 - Andrew Pederzolli

It must make a big difference on the pressure when the pot is low, because it didn't take long for the strike ball to pay out again. This week was Andrew Pederzolli's turn to take a stab at the pitch. Despite hearing some people wanting to give him Bounce's hearing aids, the distractions were no match for his laser focus, he let out a good throw and claimed the prize as his own.

This week Comanche and Cherokee get to take their second half fates into their own hands, if either team can get up to 46 points they win the second half no questions asked. For Comanche that means they need to win 3, but for Cherokee they would need to claim all 5 points. Lurking in the shadows are Mohawks, who are hoping that the two big dogs trade some blows and they can use that half point to their advantage to steal the second half from both of them. The ONLY way for there to be a Second Half roll off is for Comanche and Cherokee to tie a game, or for Seminole and Mohawk to tie a game and get some help from Comanche and Cherokee, which opens the door for Seminoles to get the second half. Good Luck and Good Bowling Guys!
