Important Messages

Tuesday Seniors 23-24

Spare Me went up against Three's Company with no worries in the world as they already locked up the 1st place in the standings. Nancy Linder bowled 8 pins over her average for the match. Joe Antenucci also bowled 8 pins above his average, while Betty Maggs struggled for the match, bowling 33 pins below her average for her team. Three's Company had the 2nd position locked up and had no way of catching Spare Me, yet they still decided to bowl their best as Andy Lustofin bowled 24 pins above her average this week. Ann Seabridge also bowled 39 pins over her average for the match. Rich Petterson rolled a 659 series this week putting him 53 pins above his average for the team with games of 226 & 235 for the match. Three's Company ended the season in the 2nd position.

Beauties & The Beard had to fight it out with Bob's Babes for the 3rd position in the standings. It wasn't looking good for them at first as they lost the first game, then they came roaring back taking the next two games and total wood, which helped them lock up the 3rd position in the standings. Theresa Dalpe was the only member of her team to bowl 28 pins above her average. Eileen Spickler struggled for the match as she bowled 20 pins under her average. Jim Spickler just missed his average by 9 pins for his team. Bob's Babes had Phyllis Koblisch absent for the match which left the team one bowler short for the match. Karen Phelan came out strong as she bowled 52 pins above her average for the match, however Bob Saunders negated all the good bowling by Karen as he struggled for the match bowling 80 pins below his average. Bob's Babes finished in the 4th position for the season.

The Jammers had a slight chance of moving up in the standings with a little luck on their side, if they won all 4 points and the 4th place team lost all 4 points when they went up against Basement Bowlers. Only one big problem The Jammers only had Mary Burger present to bowl for her team as her teammates Jill Dunster & Art LeBlanc were absent again. Mary Burger did struggle for the match as she bowled 9 pins below her average yet her team still managed to grab 3 points for the match and end the season in the 5th position. Basement Bowlers had Elizabeth Craft absent for another week which did hurt the team. Mary Goertz struggled this week as she bowled 26 pins below her average for the match. Tom Dinardi managed to bowl 6 pins above his average for the team, however it just wasn't enough as Basement Bowlers dropped into the 7th position to end the season.

A Rose Between 2 Thorns had to be very careful as they took on BJS because they could have dropped down in the standings if they lost all 4 points to BJS. However that wasn't the case as they managed to win the match and pick up all 4 points. Rose Sopok just missed her average by 4 pins. While Vince Aceto missed his first game then bowled 21 pins under his average for the match. Rocco Casucci bowled 13 pins above his average. A Rose Between 2 Thorns managed to end the season in the 6th position. BJS had Barbara Mazurak bowling 57 pins below her average for her team. Sylma LeBlanc had to sit this match out leaving her team one bowler short. Joe Mazurak did manage to bowl 11 pins over his average for his team. BJS finished the season in the last position.

Striking Patterns and On-Strikes were fighting each other to get out of the last position along with BJS who was also in a three-way tie. Striking Patterns had Anne Copps bowling 38 pins above her average for the match. Olga Perelli is still away on vacation, so she was no help to her team. Winnie Petterson struggled again this week as she bowled 19 pins below his average for her team. Striking Patterns did manage to win the last game and pick up 1 point for the match which helped them...
