So for those of you who might not have been there for the end of the night Monday, Comanche and Cherokee decided they wanted to bowl each other a little more, thanks to a tie in the third game both teams ended the half with 44 and a half points. So this week on lanes 9-10 they meet again for the second half roll off. This is a 3 game roll off and Total Pinfall with Handicap will determine the winner. IF Comanche win this roll off, that is all she wrote and they win both halves and are thereby crowned the league champions. IF Cherokee wins the roll off they become the second half champs. Then, per the decision of the teams involved with the blessing of three officers present, the two teams will bowl a sudden death 4th game and the Total Pins with Handicap winner of that game will be your 2023-2024 League Champions. Continued on back...

50/50 -$70 - Will Emmel

X-Ball - $23

As for the rest of us, we will be having a fun night on lanes 1-6. Stay tuned because the games will be announce on the alleys before each one starts. Don't leave once you are finished because the league will be paying out after we determine our League Champions. If for some reason you cannot attend bowling this week, let one of the officers know the best way to get in contact with you so we can make sure you get your prize money.

We did some things a little different this week with strike ball where we kept drawing numbers until somebody won the pot. And nobody seemed to want it since we went through 7 guys until it paid out. Josh McNeish, Dan Pietrowski, Dan Taylor, Jim Barnett, Teddy Trainor, and Gage Terwilliger all had a chance and missed winning the payout. Scott Emmel finally got a shot and claimed the prize. There was a whole lot of noise til we got there, but we certainly caused enough chaos for a $23 prize!
