Important Messages

Just a reminder you are not allowed to come in and get a table before 5pm. You must also have a person at your table, or people can move your items. It is not fair for the people that work a little later that people are saving tables for other people. I only have room for the 8 we currently have. If people come in and keep saving tables we I will make it so each pair only gets one table, or the top 8 scoring teams from the previous week. Please don't make me be the table police!!!
